

Rosemont Scholarship Winners

Phillip Kim just graduated from West Campus as the salutatorian of his class. He plans to attend Stanford University and his career goal is in electrical engineering. Some of his activities have been volunteering with the Fishers of Men Feed the Hungry Homeless Shelter, Mathletes, Violinist, MESA, National Honor Society, tutoring, church worship, and soccer to name a few.

Kaitlin Raymond graduated from Rosemont High School and plans to attend UCD with a major in psychology. She has been on the debate team the past four years at RHS. Some of her activities have included working with Albert Einstein students to help them with their debating skills, working with students at Sequoia's school garden to improve the garden with new plants and repair broken fixtures, and volunteering at Front Street Animal Shelter.

Sophia Kut is also a graduate of Rosemont High School and plans to attend San Joaquin Valley College to become a respiratory therapist. Her activities include being a kids' camp counselor, singing in the choir at her church, Sunday school teacher, and teen worship instructor. She has been a part of and excelled in RHS culinary arts program for her last two years at RHS.

RCA is happy to be able to present these scholarships to our senior graduates from the Rosemont community.
